

Invite Brad to Your Next Meeting:

Learn How The Stories We Tell Ourselves Determine How We Change and Grow
Learn Ten Steps to Break Out of Your Stale Plot and Create a New Life Chapter

Brad Graber is an award-winning author who writes contemporary fiction about life, love, and friendship. Insightful and witty, Graber challenges us to look beyond the surface, creating characters that inspire hope and connection.

ABOUT BRAD:

Brad Graber writes novels because he grew up in a family where no one listened to him—so he made up stories about them.

An experienced guest speaker for healthcare organizations, Brad's an alumni of the Arizona Storyteller Project, where he has presented to an audience of over 400 attendees. Born and raised in New York City, Brad obtained a B.A. in Biology from the State University of New York at Buffalo and an M.H.A. from Washington University in St. Louis, Missouri. A former healthcare executive, Brad no longer works in healthcare though he continues to volunteer with local non-profits. Boca by Moonlight is Brad's latest novel. His debut novel The Intersect, and second novel, After the Fall as well as his collection of essays What's That Growing in My Sour Cream? have won multiple awards. Brad also writes a humor blog: There, I Said It! For more information on Brad go to: BradGraber.com
